

I'm very excited for the opportunity to serve on the Board of Directors of Breadroot Natural Foods Co-Op. I've been a member-owner for about five years, and Breadroot is my primary grocery store and a place I truly enjoy supporting. I value shopping locally, being part of a community-focused co-op, and having access to healthy, thoughtfully sourced food.

I'm passionate about holistic and natural living and believe our community should have access to options that truly support well-being. Supporting local is also incredibly important to me. Breadroot not only serves our community, but creates meaningful opportunities for local producers and vendors to thrive, and that's something I'm proud to be part of.

In my professional life, I bring experience in marketing and communications, including messaging, public relations, social media, and digital outreach. I enjoy helping organizations connect with their communities in meaningful ways, and I hope to use those skills to support Breadroot's mission, help share what the Co-op offers, and strengthen connections between members, local producers, and our community.

As a Board member, if elected, I would focus on ensuring continued access to healthy options, supporting local producers, and helping Breadroot remain a welcoming, trusted resource for our community. I would be honored to have your support and the opportunity to give back to our community here in the Hills. If you see me at Breadroot or around town, please say hi; I'd love to hear your thoughts and ideas for our Co-op!
